- c. All work in progress at PSC will be brought to an orderly shutdown and PSC will issue an invoice to the Customer for all work completed up to the end of the orderly shutdown.
- d. At a later point in time, when the conditions causing the delay cease, PSC may have extraordinary costs associated with the resumption of the Services. Such extraordinary costs are subject to agreement between the Parties and consent to paying such extraordinary costs shall not be unreasonably withheld by the Customer.

20.1 In the event that such delay or prevention continues for more than eight weeks, the party whose performance is not delayed or prevented may terminate this agreement on 30 days' written notice to the other party, in which case the provisions of clause 10 shall apply.

21. NON-SOLICITATION

Each party agrees that, during the term of this Agreement and for a period of twelve months from the date of termination of this Agreement, it shall not (without the other party's prior agreement in writing, which shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed) directly or indirectly offer to employ, engage as an independent contractor or induce any person who has been associated in a technical or managerial capacity with any of the Services during the preceding twelve months to leave the other party's employment. For the avoidance of doubt, this clause shall continue to apply where an Ancillary Agreement has been terminated but this Agreement remains in force with the relevant twelve month period only beginning on termination of this Agreement and not the termination of an Ancillary Agreement.

22. ASSIGNMENT

- 22.1 The Customer has no right to sub-license, sub-contract or to assign the benefit or burden of this Agreement or any Ancillary Agreement in whole or in part, or in any way transfer any of its rights or obligations under this Agreement or any Ancillary Agreement without the prior written consent of PSC and/or the Software Provider and any attempt to do any of the foregoing without such consent is void.
- 22.2 In addition to its right to appoint a substitute pursuant to clause 3.3 PSC may sub-license, sub-contract, assign, charge or otherwise transfer any of its rights or obligations under this Agreement or any Ancillary Agreement, provided it gives written notice to the Customer of any sub-licence, assignment, charge or other transfer.

23. GOVERNING LAW AND JURISDICTION

- 23.1 This Agreement, any Ancillary Agreements and any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with this Agreement, any Ancillary Agreement or their subject matter or formation (including non-contractual disputes or claims) shall be governed by and construed in accordance with Irish law.
- 23.2 The parties irrevocably agree that the courts of Ireland shall have exclusive jurisdiction to settle any dispute or claim that arises out of or in connection with this Agreement, any Ancillary Agreement or their subject matter or formation (including non-contractual disputes or claims).

24. CHANGE MANAGEMENT

- 24.1 Any change to or requirement for a change to these General Terms of Business, any Ancillary Agreement or the Services requested by the Customer (a “Change”) shall be made in accordance with the following procedure:
- (a) The Customer will provide PSC with a written request detailing the proposed Change and the person within the Customer’s undertaking to whom all correspondence in respect of the Change must be addressed (the “Change Representative”);
 - (b) PSC will provide the Change Representative with an evaluation report on the proposed Change which will cover feasibility, impact on any time or other schedules contained or referred to in this Agreement, any Ancillary Agreement, the Clauses, the Schedules, resource requirements and/or any cost effects (the “Evaluation Report”);
 - (c) the Change Representative will consider the Evaluation Report and will notify PSC in writing, within a reasonable time of receipt of the Evaluation Report having regard to the nature and extent of the proposed Change of the Customer’s decision whether or not to request PSC to proceed with the Change.

- 24.2 If the parties agree that the proposed Change is acceptable the parties shall use their reasonable endeavours to carry out the Change. In the event that either party decides not to proceed, it will give written notice of its decision to the other party within 15 working days following consideration of the Evaluation Report or such shorter timescale as shall be necessary in relation to the Services which are the subject of the proposed Change.
- 24.3 PSC reserves the right to charge reasonable costs for preparing the Evaluation Report at a rate to be agreed between the parties.
- 24.4 PSC may propose a Change in accordance with the procedure detailed in Clause 25.1 above adapted mutatis mutandis to refer to PSC.
- 24.5 No modifications or alterations to these General Terms of Business, the Ancillary Agreements or the Services will be valid unless such modifications or alterations are in writing and signed by a duly authorised representative of each party.
